

SELF EVALUATION IN ADULT LIFE LONG LEARNING

Invitation SEALLL final conference

21 September 2007

SEALLL final conference and in-service training day on self-evaluation in adult life long learning

We would like to invite you to the SEALLL final conference on self-evaluation in formal and non-formal life long learning settings. This conference takes place on the 21 September in the Conscience building, department of Education in Brussels and is organised in cooperation with EPOS, the Flemish LLP programme agency.

SEALLL aims to improve the quality of teaching and learning and the quality of organisation and management in LLL by promoting and supporting self-evaluation. The project wants to help all 'players' in LLL-organisations self-evaluate their teaching, learning and management.

9 partners from 8 countries - in cooperation with 30 'member institutions' - participated in SEALLL. You can find more information on: www.sealll.eu

This conference targets all actors in formal and non-formal adult education (management, curriculum developers, inspection, teachers, trainers ...) involved or interested in quality care and self-evaluation.
